“My husband is Abu
Abdillah, and what is Abu Abdillah(i.e. what should I say about him)? (Has) a determination
unmatched by many of his contemporaries. An aspiring zaahid, barely appearing to be connected to the world, and with a large heart both physical and metaphorical. A man extremely quick to anger but is quickly soothed by the verses of the Quran and authentic narrations of the religion. His ambition is unmatched to many, and coupled with his Tawakkul(from what one can humanly

observe), always seems
to get whatever of the
halal he sets his heart

upon, or better(directly from His Rabb/ Creator)”

Umm Maryam

[My wife is Umm Maryam, and what is Umm Maryam(i.e. what should I say about her)?
Her worship of Allah(from what the eye can see) comes close to no one I have ever witnessed before(with my own eyes), her supplications are always answered(from what Allah has blessed me with of little knowledge). Her worldly beauty has a distant resemblance to that of The Hur Al 'Ain of Jannah. On top of that, Allah has fully concealed it to none other than her husband, through her niquaab. Her zuhd/abstemiousness has a resemblance to the one who's name she bares, from the Quran and Sunnah; Maryam 'aleihaassalaam. Her detachment from the dunia is undescrivable, and just like

Maryam 'aleihaassalaam, her provisions from her Creator never cease, whether her husband provides for her(from the little he has) or not.- Abu Abdillah]

person has a tailor- made path to success. Turn back hereafter (by the will of Allah)

80. Better to be a tortoise travelling in the correct direction than a hare taking other than the due course

81. Better to be patient than to pay the penalty for haste

82. If what is intended of grants you all that you require.

91. The love of Allah alone require from others, but love of others alone keeps you away from both

92. You can be at peace when you worship Allah, both at times of ease and at times of difficulties

93. Better to tell the truth then endure, than to lie and miss out on the opportunity to grow

path, don't falter

98. Believe without omitting the last 2 letters

99. Patience is the easy way to success, and is the only way

100. Whenever you lose a battle, stop and thank Allah as He is preparing you for the sure victory (Allah willing)

Spiritual Levitation 1

1. Face your fears, and pray to Allah always

2. You can never attain true success (i.e. in this world and the next life), until you worship Allah correctly and seek His assistance continuously/ continually

3. If you choose a life of worshipping Allah in all that you do in your life, then(by His will), all that you desire will come to you submissively.

4. Every time you feel like giving up, turn back to Allah(whole heartedly)
5. Concentrate on bettering yourself. The general rule of thumb is that the better you are, the more those around you get affected positively.
6. Keep on being patient, and never stop being patient, until your soul exists the collarbone.

7. In patience, there is wisdom from Allah. He is showing you that He is The One that controls everything

8. Modern day monks(and practitioners of abstemiousness) can sometimes be found in cities and towns.

9. The more you practice Zuhd (Orthodox Islamic Abstemiousness), the more your heart lets go of the world. Then the more the world clings on to you(metaphorically speaking).

Spiritual Levitation 3

2. Don't blame people for the bad they do, just advise them. Call them wisely to the truth, even if it be just through your actions e.g.

smiling, cheerfulness. Most importantly, supplicate for yourself and for them. Make the du'a/ supplication in the sunnah(narrations of Prophet Muhammad, his actions and tacit approvals) for seeing a person in affliction(partly to protect yourself from the destruction etc. upon them), advise them(if you can), and leave the rest to Allah

3. Don't be quick to judge people, Leave that to Allah; we judge only from the apparent, using the Quran(uncreated speech of Allah) and the authentic sunnah(speech of the Prophet- peace be up[on him-, his actions, and his tacit approvals- who only spoke from revelation). The hidden matters of peoples actions; leave that to Allah

4. The one you are judging, may be better than you in the sight of Allah, He/ she may be facing greater trials than you could handle. Be gentle with people, and supplicate plentifully for them, especially in their absence.

Most importantly supplicate for yourself.

5. Only through patience can you endure all worldly obstacles(by the permission of Allah)

Spiritual Levitation 2

1. Never let go of your (correct) religious principles

2. The enemies surrounding you (i.e., Shaitan/ satan and dunia/ the seeming glitter of the world) (and within you, (i.e., your hawa/ desires and nafs/ your lower self) are always ready to launch attacks. Be vigilant (i.e. by supplicating to Allah always), be informed (i.e. seek knowledge) and be ready (for the ongoing spiritual battle/ warfare) and on guard(by beseeching Allah's assistance, refuge and rescue)

3. Sometimes you have to let go of certain things, for a new chapter in your life to begin

Everything that is with

Allah (by His protection) is never lost

5. It is at that breaking point, when you literally (and metaphorically) feel that you are fast-approaching rock bottom (or anguish is about to set in); that is the time to supplicate for all the good that you wish for. Then wait for the miracles that shall follow (only by the will of Allah)

6. Always ask for Allah's bounties/ favours upon you (whether you hear the cockerel crow or not)

Inspirational Gems

1. Religion (The way of life) is not just a label that one wears. You must be able to experience the positive effects within yourself , and thus be able to positively affect others even without saying a word

2. If the commander in chief(i.e. the spiritual heart) is not in full control of his subjects(i.e. the limbs and all other faculties) then inevitable disaster awaits.

The only way the commander in chief can achieve this just, wise rule is by having knowledge of The True Monotheism of Allah, and embedding the internal qualities of the Prophet (peace be upon him) within themselves. Therefore, one internally and externally acts by Divine Guidance(i.e. the subjects happily carry out the chief's commands)

3. If you actually took the time to observe your children and actually listen to what they are trying to tell you/ share with you, within due reason and boundaries, you would learn lessons not even your friends could teach you...children are a special gift from Allah, so treat them well, and nurture them according to their nature/disposition/developing mental capacity. Most importantly, instil in them religious ethics and good character

4. Allah is the one that controls the hearts of the insaan/ mankind: Have you not heard the Hadith of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him): 'if Allah loves a person, He calls Jibrael saying, 'Allah loves so and so; O Jibrael love him.' And make an announcement amongst the inhabitants of the heaven: "Allah loves so and so therefore you should love him also, and so all the inhabitants of the heaven would love him, and then he is granted the pleasures of the people on the earth."

[Al-Bukhari and Muslim].

So, do what is right, don't fear the blame of the blamers, and be rest assured that the matters of the seen and the unseen are totally in the hands of Allah.

5. Don't be fooled by Shaytaan, who only wants to see you sad and crippled, so that he can launch his weak attacks. Allah says in the Qur'an (4:76) Chapter 4 Verse 76 ; "Ever feeble indeed is the plot of Shaytaan (Satan)".

6. The interesting thing about life, which further elaborates on the Mercy and Wisdom of Allah, is that He always gives us a chance to change. He gives us signs, one after another, in order that we repent to Him, and return to the straight path. The more we accept these lessons and follow accordingly, the more He leads us(by His

Will), to the path of righteousness, and to remain upon it. Otherwise, our open refusal only sets us down the paths of never ending misguidance and destruction, to the point where one actually loses themselves; Allah says in the Qur'an, Chapter 42 verse 45 "And you will see them brought forward to it (Hell) made humble by

disgrace, (and) looking with stealthy glance. And those who believe will say:
"Verily, the losers are they who lose themselves and their families on the Day of Resurrection. Verily, the Dhalimuun [i.e. Al-Kafirun (disbelievers in Allah, in His Oneness and in His Messenger SAW,
polytheists, wrong-doers, etc.)] will be in a lasting torment."

7. If you cannot successfully lead yourself, you cannot successfully lead others

8. Sins aren't always those that you can openly see. Many sins are committed in the confines of your spiritual heart, those deep seated unrestricted ill feelings and desires that only Allah sees...always ask for guidance from the One Above, repent to Him, and seek His forgiveness.

9. Many Parents should wake up: if you keep treating your children like they are still babies, this may have long-term detrimental effects. Give children some level of guided independence, and directed decision making; especially when they reach the age of mental/intellectual discernment (which is around 7 or so), then they will feel respected and start taking initiatives. Allow them to think out of the box of fantasy and false reality that so many parents put their children in. If your child has the ability to memorise about 50 to 100 different cartoon characters, with their names and their associated roles, then Allah is showing you, that in its place, he can learn 100 or more verses from the Holy book(with its meaning and associated actions). Parents, wake up from the sleep of heedlessness. Allah says in the Quran to the believers; “Save yourself and your families from a fire whose fuel is men and stone”... Save yourselves...don't let societal norms divert you from your spiritual goals; it is either to Paradise or Hell; You as a parent, have a major pivotal role in your children's/ child's life journey.

10. Don't seek fame: Be sincere towards Allah, and stick to the straight path; The One who does something sincerely for Allah(i.e. seeking His face), Allah will help him. Allah says in Chapter 65 verse 2 "And whosoever fears Allah and keeps his duty to Him, He will make a way for him to get out (from every difficulty)".

11. One thing that we can reflect on from the world of the animals, is that Allah gave them different roles, functions and benefits that they provide to themselves and the environment. They worship Allah and act accordingly, which proves that many people can't even match an animal's status, in terms of knowing what is good for them and acting therewith. Allah says in the Qur an, Chapter 7 verse 179; "And surely, We have created many of the jinns and mankind for Hell. They have hearts wherewith they understand not, they have eyes wherewith they see not, and they have ears wherewith they hear not (the truth). They are like cattle, nay even more astray; those! They are the heedless ones."

12. What are our priorities? Allah says in The Qur'an, Chapter 3 (Aal 'Imraan) verse 154: And whoever desires a reward in (this) world, We shall give him of it; and whoever desires a reward in the Hereafter, We shall give him thereof. And We shall reward the grateful. In the Qur an, Chapter 17 (Al Israa), verse 18-19; “Whoever desires the quick-passing (transitory enjoyment of this world), We readily grant him what We will for whom We like.

Then, afterwards, We have appointed for him Hell; he will burn therein disgraced and rejected. 19. And whoever desires the Hereafter and strives for it, with the necessary effort due for it while he is a believer, then such are the ones whose striving shall be appreciated, (rewarded by Allah)” And in the Qur'an Chapter 42 (Surah Shuurah) verse 20-21; Whosoever desires (with his deeds) the reward of the Hereafter, We give him increase in his reward, and whosoever desires the reward of this world (with his deeds), We give him thereof (what is written for him), and he has no portion in the Hereafter.

13. Don't be put off by hatred. Be patient with all harm that comes from following the path of Allah; you would be surprised when even your worst enemy comes to take you as a close friend. Have you not heard the verse of Allah in the Qur'an (41:34) Surah Fussilat verse 34: "Repel (the evil) with one which is better (i.e. Allah ordered the faithful believers to be patient at the time of anger, and to excuse those who treat them badly), then verily! he, between whom and you there was enmity, (will become) as though he was a close friend.

Spiritual Reflections of an Orthodox Islamic Immigrant

2. Parable of the importance of knowledge: Know your button mushroom from a magic mushroom, as eating one is a blessing, and eating the other is a potential sin.

3. Parable on dedication:

When the light refuses to switch on, use an alternative power supply.

4. Importance of travel:

Sometimes, the things you wish for are not always in the locality you currently reside in.

4. Tests of Allah: It is not until you live deeply amongst the ignorant , that you would know whether you are yourself the same.

5. In a land of deep seated Jahiliyyah, I give you an advice my fellow brother or sister, never open Pandora's box even if you can physically get out eventually, the spiritual, emotional and intellectual damage to your being may never heal. Important lesson; Never argue with an ignorant one. Don't even contemplate or think about it.

6. Always turn back to the Creator. Don't let the people's negative, abusive and derogatory words put you down. Trust in Allah, He will fulfill his promise to those who fear and trust Him alone.

7. If you are following a path that you are not meant to follow, the Creator will make it very clear to you, as long as you constantly seek His counsel. (i.e.

Istikhaarah), you are sincere and you demonstrate never-ending patience (only for the sake of Allah).

Spiritual Diamonds from The Land Of Worldly Wealth completely incapacitate the most intellectual of

6. Seek a path to your Rabb/ Creator/ Lord. Allah says in the Quran:

“ So, flee to Allah”/ “fafirruu ilallah”

7. Always be cheerful, be positive, and never fear to have fun [just don't lie or transgress the boundaries of your Rabb/ Creator/ Lord]

8. Always take regular breaks;
Pause...reflect...then press play. Your soul will thank you for it.

Overcoming Negative Emotions

1. The best way to fight anger and negative emotions/ feelings is to just let go of it

2. Without conflict, we wouldn't be able to separate the real sheep from the deceitful wolves

3. Patience is like a bitter herb, whereas above that is shukr which is as sweet and as fulfilling as pure unadulterated honey

4. The more you have to work for something, the sweeter the internal enjoyment is, at and beyond that thing's innate threshold of success (by the

will, permission and command of Allah)

5. Just like business, you cannot build a successful Emotionally Positive
Enterprise in one day

6. To be a lover, you must love, otherwise, even the one full of hatred may at times positively emerge from their constantly negative bouts of emotion

7. Be like an infinitely (i.e. tending to) stretching rubber band; that way after negative ephemeral forces let go of you, by way of whispering coercions (and otherwise- as in the case of human Shayaatin/ devils), you always bounce back to your positive centre. Most importantly, always remain connected to your core principles, values and beliefs

8. Silence in a state of anger, will save you an eternity of regret

9. Be patient. Take life slowly and gradually as it capitalizes (by the will of Allah). No sane individual is known to eat a raw grain of rice directly from a cooking pot before the contents of the pot boil and soften; we are not chickens, so behave like a human and patiently wait for success at its due time

10. Life is a journey, but most importantly a process; Have your positively ephemeral and divine goals and just enjoy the speed bumps on the way.

Whatever you do, DON'T RUSH/ DON'T BE HASTY

Spiritual Orchestration

1. Spiritual Monetization:

Worry about logs not twigs.

Explanation:

The people of the book (Jews and Christians) quote, from the nearest meaning;

“ Take care of the log in your own eye, and not the twig in another’s eye”

Taking from this statement, you must not be scared to confront your own heart. You must turn back to Allah. Take responsibility of your failures/weaknesses. Ask Allah to forgive you, pardon you and guide you.

2. Remote working;

Carry out the work/ tasks that Allah/ God has assigned you

Explanation

Allah says in the Quran, Chapter 51, Adhdhariat
Verse 56:

“I did not create mankind and Jinn except to Worship me”

Imaam Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdul Wahhaab says in the beginning of his book(‘Usool Thalaatha- The 3 Fundamental Principles)

“Know, May Allah have mercy upon you, that it is obligatory to have knowledge of 4 matters

1. Knowledge”

So, to worship Allah alone, we must know Allah, and to know Allah, we must seek knowledge.

May Allah guide us all Ameen

3. The 100/ 0 rule

For success in this world and the hereafter.

Allah says in the Quraan

“Whoever seeks the reward of this life(dunia), we give it to them, and whoever seeks the reward of the hereafter, we give it to them...”

So, the 100/0 rule which I coined is to always be in the worship of Allah, whether you are sleeping, working, relaxing, in a group etc. Everything you do by your intention to seek the face of Allah becomes worship(everything that Allah loves)

For example, before you sleep, make the necessary supplications, and intend the face of Allah, such that you intend to rejuvenate yourself to carry out more ibaaadah(worship) when you wake up(if you wake up)

Allah says in the Quran

“Verily my prayer, sacrifice, my living and my dying is for (Allah), The Rabb(Lord) of the ‘alameen(mankind, jinn and all that exists)”

Longevity in Marriage

1. Without deep knowledge of yourself, you may not be able to understand your spouse. But before that, without firm knowledge of Allah, you cannot understand anything or anyone, not even yourself

2. For longevity in marriage, you have to be prepared to better yourself regularly in order to overcome the long marital journey; just like a car must continuously be fuelled up in order to endure a long intercontinental cruise

3. Without disagreements and challenges, you won't know whether you love your spouse enough to endure the marriage.

4. Stacked, unjointed plates will always clash one onto another when subject to motion , just like 2

unconnected spouses would always clash when subject to emotional trials.
The less you are positively glued together, the more the clashes will be, or worse still, complete breakage of both plates(i.e. divorce)

5. Without constant forgiveness, pardoning, overlooking of faults, and forbearance, a positive marriage is seldom possible

6. Concentrate on your spouse's positive traits and characteristics, and look over their faults and tarnishes

Spiritual Levitation 4

1. If you don't believe in miracles/ miraculous events/ positively unusual events, then you have underestimated Al Mutakabbir(The Supreme), Al Qawii(The All Strong), As 'Azeez, AshShakur(The Multiplier of rewards), Al 'Adheem(The Great), fa 'allullima yureed(The One who does what He wills) i.e.

Allah

2. Be patient. Submit completely to Allah, and know that He cures all illnesses, including the sickness of our hearts, sadness and grief etc.

3. It is not until you let go of negative emotions, that a world of positivity opens up to you- by the will of Allah

4. Through the tears which you cry (both internally and externally), know that Allah is ever near to His creation (by His knowledge). He is especially answering towards the oppressed person (and Allah knows best)

5. When you feel oppressed, or you are facing many barriers on your quest to happiness and success, stop for a moment and praise Him (Allah), Who Has provided you with much provision, favours, bounties and blessings.

6. When your heart/ spirit feels stuck somewhere, turn back to Allah, for He tells us that:

“Verily in the remembrance of Allah, do hearts find rest” Quran Chapter Ra-d, The Thunder, Chapter 13 Verse 28.

7. Be a spiritual escapist; don't be stuck where you don't want to be- by the will of Allah

8. You must die trying to achieve your (righteous) goals- in the name of Allahand by His Will

9. The more barriers that are in your way, the more Allah is meaning to elevate your status, in both this world and the hereafter-only by His Will.

Spiritual Traveller

1. The trick to attaining spiritual stability in life, is to align your wants with your needs

2. Once you have aligned your wants with your needs, the doors of spiritual satisfaction and contentment

make anchor within-by the will of Allah

3. Once you give without expecting reward from the people, you will experience spiritual upliftment

4. If you act mindfully (within divine principles), sooner or later, you will receive a King's welcome- In shaa Allah.

5. There reaches a time in some people's lives, where, in order to maintain intellectual congruence

& sanity, sincerity to Allah, spiritual
uprightness,
physical calmness and emotional balance &
integrity,
you must block out
certain darknesses
that only the spiritual eyes can see, just the way one patches up a damaged roof/ wall

6. When your spiritual eyes are wide open,
not even

The Shaitan can convince you otherwise, as Your Rabb has allowed your spiritual eye to encompass your enemy the way a spotlight encompasses a sought out criminal

7. Don't fear spirituality, however, do fear it's absence in you

8. Most people don't live up to their words

9. The amount of times you may hear people swear and making oaths in the name of Allah, you may ask yourself whether The Mahdi/ Reviver has arrived, only to realise that the Shaitan has deceived many on the face of this Earth

10. Only Allah's recompense is sufficient for those who make false testimonies in the name of Allah purposefully to throw people into trouble and destruction, let alone towards the

Muslims, Believers, Muhsiniin etc. Not even the Prophet's (Peace be upon them all) were safe from the harm of these type of people

11. The one who sees the light but purposely chooses to remain in darkness; pray for them and do not entertain the call of their devil inviting you to the never- ending paths of darkness

13. Don't be tricked by the Shaitaan; always be vigilant and trust that Allah will guide you to the straight path in Shaa Allah. Start with sincerity of intention. May Allah purify our hearts and intentions Ameen

14. The biggest talkers are seldom the biggest walkers

15. Very few people continuously,
consciously, constantly and consistently endeavor to align every faculty of their existence, whether physical, mental,
emotional, spiritual and otherwise, COMPLETELY

to the Quran and sunnah according to the understanding of the Sahaabah

16. Many people do not realise that you can not win a war with one whom Allah has chosen to protect, even The head Devil, Iblees knows this

17. Seek knowledge, act accordingly (with wisdom), call to the Truth and be patient through the resulting trials in-order to obtain a noble standing in this world and the next (by Allah's mercy and favour)

18. Anger and harshness have never, and will never build a safe and beautiful environment.

May Allah purify our hearts

19. Don't shout at cattle and their likes, as they cannot hear, just lead them aright within your humanly-possible
means, and leave the changing of the hearts and even the changing in physical appearances to Allah Subhaana wa ta
'aala

20. If intellectually and strategically, it is a sincere, clear and unadulterated victory, the next steps is either acceptance of the truth, then change, or denial and remaining on falsehood, or intentionally choosing to enter into darkness

21. The ones who consciously endeavour to walk in the light of divine guidance and their enemies, who walk in the paths of darkness know themselves in the spiritual realm. For those that want only Paradise and to see the face of Allah Jalla jalaali, you have The Prophets to follow, and those that want other than that, then that path is also clear and extremely easy to tread upon. May Allah guide us Ameen. May Allah purify our hearts and intentions Ameen

22. Things are not always as they seem. Leave those that Allah has put in certain places/circumstances and who He has given certain abilities, to carry out their God- given task (by the will of Allah)

23. You will not truly reach the peak of attaining knowledge until you start to understand the importance of learning, understanding and implementing the words of your Creator.
Humankind as a whole is currently, and until judgement day, bound by the last testament.

One must also make a sincere intention to learn the language that Our Creator chose to send His words down in,
further being the language of Jannah/Paradise

24. When propagating religious values and the importance of the Arabic language or Quraan, do not add in your own nationalistic/ personal/tribal/cultural twists that have no basis in Divine Law, otherwise many may be hindering people from the right path

25. In Orthodox Islam, it is known that ignorance is filth. Eliminate ignorance from yourself through seeking knowledge

26. Those closest to you physically and emotionally could be the ones plotting most against you. Think about it, your closest companion from the Jinn (i.e. your Qareen) works day and night to misguide you and to take you to the hellfire. So, turn back to Allah, repent and obey Prophet

Muhammad pbuh, read and completely &
sincerely implement the last Testament.

27. Whenever you love something or someone divergently, The Creator will test you continuously with that thing, until your love and attachment is only for Him (Allah Subhanna wa ta 'aala)

Poetic Statements for My Love

Umm Maryam

[My wife is Umm Maryam, and what is Umm Maryam(i.e. what should I say about her)? Her worship of Allah(from what the eye can see) comes close to no one I have ever witnessed before(with my own eyes), her supplications are always answered(from what Allah has blessed me with of little knowledge).

Her worldly beauty has a distant resemblance to that of The Hur Al 'Ain of Jannah. On top of that, Allah has fully concealed it to none other than her husband, through her niqaab. Her zuhd/abstemiousness has a resemblance to the one who's name she bares, from the Quran and Sunnah; Maryam

'aleihaassalaam. Her detachment from the dunia is undescribable, and just like Maryam
'aleihaassalaam, her
provisions from her

Creator never cease, whether her husband provides for her(from the little he has) or not.-
Abu Abdillah]

“My husband is Abu
I say about him)? (Has) a
determination
unmatched by many of

appearing to be connected to the world, and with a large heart both physical and metaphorical. A man extremely quick to anger but is quickly soothed by the verses of the Quran and authentic narrations of the religion. His ambition is unmatched to many, and coupled with his Tawakkul(from

what one can humanly
to get whatever of the
upon, or better(directly

Poem 1

If I had to trade the whole world and it's shimmering, glimmering beauty to enter paradise with you as my wife, I would and I have,

I would walk to the moon and back just for your companionship in Jannah, and I have.

I would sacrifice my money for our companionship, and I have,

with the little I can afford.

If I could be with you now to wipe your tears and be a shoulder to cry on and a pillow to lay on, I would, and you know I would...I love you and always will

Poem 2

If I ever knew

If I ever knew I had to climb one giant mountain to earn your worldly love, I would say make it two

If I ever knew there would be a day without me speaking with you,

I would filter my speech and think about what I said to you,
momentarily, through and through

If I ever knew I would cause a drop to fall from your eyes, being a reflection of the pain I would cause you,

I would plea with my Rabb to summon the sea to cool your frustrations,

I would ask my Rabb to hasten His mercy upon us, positively regenerate my thoughtless remarks, purify my heart and make my soul renewed

And if I knew there was a day I might lose you, I would trust in my Rabb, and pray to him ardently to diverge this calamity from the Qadar towards the Qadar,

So I may forever be with you

Poem 3

The wind that blew Oh what sorrow, when I lost
you,
Amongst the souls lined up with Prophet Adam,
Me and you intermingling spiritually with one another,

Then it was just then, it was like the wind blew

Separated on Earth through lineage, searching through the worldly rubble, looking

only for you

Until I found my soul mate once again, rejoined, realigned, rekindled, a friendship we remembered once anew

And that's when it happened again,
suddenly it was like a wind just blew

How I long to hold you in my arms, and tell you it will all be okay.

How I long to have you by my side, fingers gently interlocked,

And tell you do not be afraid,

Not because of your lack of Taqwa(of Allah),

But the permissible fear of losing one another through the plots of Shaitaan, and the realisation that yes it is all alright...

As I stand face to face with my Love in Jannah , gazing eternally into your eyes

Poem 5

Worldly death would be sweeter for me than even an atoms thought of the possibility of losing such a priceless gem like you, of which no proficient merchant would be able to purchase, however much they perfected there trade, and however many worldly days they would toil.

You are special, not just because I think so, but because you are a special blessing from Allah, of which no human word could do justice...

How I wish to wake up in Jannatul Firdaws with you by my side(forever), only to realise that the worldly turmoil was all but just a dream...
